

INFOGRAPHIC: ARE THE WORLD'S POOREST BENEFITTING?

23 Oct 2015

Photo

credit: UNSGSA/Accurat

Click on graphic to see full-size version.

Financial inclusion has risen significantly in the last three years in developing countries and among those living at the base of the economic pyramid. Account ownership among the poorest 40 percent has more than doubled in a range of countries with widely varying population sizes and GDPs.

This infographic appears in the UNSGSA 2015 Annual Report. Other UNSGSA infographics:

Asia's Impact

Financial Inclusion: The Global Landscape of Progress